

Sign up now to be a part of the Tour of Utah at Thanksgiving Point!
Volunteer Meeting Tuesday May 17th 6:00PM Thanksgiving Point Dinosaur Museum

The Tour of Utah is unique from any other bike race in the state. The Tour of Utah includes a family cycling festival with a professional coaching clinic, biking games, a bike shop with a service unit, a BMX stunt show, a citizen's race, a kid's race of all ages and other activities.

The Tour of Utah will be hosting over 600 athletes. Among the regular race crowd will be first time racers as well as professional cyclists. We are inviting you to get involved with the community as a part of our volunteer team. The Tour of Utah could not take place without the time and energy of incredible volunteers.

▪ Race Marshals are responsible for keeping autos off the course when bicyclists are in the vicinity, for pedestrian control and for assisting residents in reaching their destinations. Training for race marshals will be provided by your volunteer captain. For information about being a Race Marshal, contact Rod Boynton at rodneboynton@yahoo.com.

▪ Pace Vehicle Drivers are responsible for driving behind the pack and providing wheels if there are flat tires. You will be responsible for protecting the pack from on coming traffic. Training for drivers will be provided by your volunteer captain. For information about being a Pace Vehicle Driver contact Marc South at msouth@utah.gov.

▪ Food and Feed Zone volunteers are responsible to help feed other volunteers to make sure they are being taken care of on their shifts. Feed Zone volunteers will be responsible for being stationed in approved Feed Zones to make sure all cyclists are given food and water they need. These volunteers will also be helping with the Frankie Andreu Presentation and Pasta dinner. For information about being a food and feed zone volunteer contact Paul Parkinson at fetchlives@hotmail.com

▪ Cycling Festival volunteers are needed to assist in numerous areas of both Cycling Festivals. The cycling festivals will be held May 26th in downtown Provo from 6:00-8:30 PM and May 28th at Thanksgiving Point from 12:00 noon-6:00 PM. If you are interested in helping with the Provo Cycling Festival please contact Dave Pratt at david.pratt@altiris.com or (801) 805-1183. If you are interested in helping with the Sat. cycling festival please contact Karilyn Preston at kari@tourofutah.com

▪ Communication volunteers will be in charge of distributing and organizing walkie talkies to all volunteers assigned to have a communication device. These volunteers will be in charge of collecting communications devices at the end of the day and distributing them in the morning. Nextel will be training all communication volunteers. For more information about being a Communication Volunteer contact Grant Nielson at (801) 756-2641 or genielson@juno.com.

▪ Medical volunteers will need to have some medical experience or EMT certification. These volunteers will be positioned at different locations throughout the race and will assist any cyclists or spectators in need of medical attention. For more information about being a medical volunteer contact Joe Jacob at perfect4me2@hotmail.com

▪ Course set up and take down volunteers will be responsible for setting up and taking down the venues. These volunteers will ensure that the venues have a professional look and feel. If you are interested in helping out with venue set-up and take-down please contact Karilyn Preston and kari@tourofutah.com.

▪ Souvenir Booth Helpers are needed to sell T-shirts, water bottles and other merchandise during both Cycling Festivals. The booths will be open Thursday May 26th from 6:00-8:30 PM in downtown Provo and Saturday May 28th from 1:00-5:30PM at Thanksgiving Point. Certain Time shifts will be available.
